Mrs. Speer leaves a small babe about 10 days' old. She leaves besides her husband, a father and one brother. Her funeral will be preached Wednesday at the German Lutheran church. She was a daughter of John Hosfield, of near Nishna.

—According to all reports, and from the looks of things, the Corning Chronicle made its last issue after the watch contest closed. Editor Smirl and family made a trip to Southern Missouri, and if reports are true will move there in a few days. We also understand that of Corning. Mrs. Speer leaves a small few days. We also understand that Buchanan county to Pennsylvania, this, Smirl has turned over his list of sub however, was in the days before rail
